This year's AGM will be held in the famous award winning Ye Olde Mitre pub off Hatton Garden. Rebuilt in 1772 on land owned by the Bishops of Ely, Cambridgeshire, the pub was originally opened in 1546 to refresh the servants of the adjacent Bishop's palace. A preserved cherry tree (around which Good Queen Bess is alleged to have danced) in the environs of the Mitre marks the boundary between the land leased to Hatton and the bishop's garden. During the English Civil War the tavern was used as both a prison and a hospital. Finding Ye Olde Mitre can be a challenge because it is located mid-way along an alleyway that connects Hatton Garden with Ely Place, the ends of which are covered and accessible via a doorway between two buildings. Look for the Bishop's Mitre picture above a doorway between two jewellers on Hatton Garden. We hope you will join us for the AGM and stay for an enjoyably social evening of drinks and nibbles with your friends and colleagues.
